FutureFit
Webinar

Nov 11, 4-5:30pm PT

Free November 11th Webinar with Futurist Brian David Johnson

How can you shape the future? What steps can you take today that will move you towards the future you want and away from a negative tomorrow?

Join us for FutureFit Executive Forums'
November 11th 4-5:30 pm PST webinar.

Guest speaker Brian David Johnson will discuss how to think like a futurist. He'll explore the methods for business leaders to not only imagine their future but the pragmatic steps that can be taken to get there.

MGL CEO Craig Martin will be hosting an engaging conversation with Johnson during this 90-minute webinar.

You will learn:

- How to shift your mindset to approach the future
- Future-back business planning tools
- Resources to equip your teams to be more prepared for the future

This program is right for:

- C-suite executives
- Senior leaders
- Leadership experts

A former Fortune 500 VP, Craig Martin is a master certified coach, team coach and consultant who equips and inspires leaders and teams to become "future fit" as they move through the "Great Reset" and into a new business reality.

Futurist Brian David Johnson "BDJ" consults with CEOs, military and others needing to forecast threats and develop future scenarios to ensure their organization's success. BDJ was the chief futurist for Intel before joining Arizona State University. His upcoming book, The Future You, launches on Amazon on January 5, 2021.
